

22. Don't Know How I Got Here

(From the Solo Edition of the Secular Hymnal - key lowered from Bb to A)

Tune: "Ville Du Havre" (Harbor City) by Philip Paul Bliss, 1876
(traditional hymn: "It Is Well With My Soul")

Words & Chords: Secretary Michael

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is accompanied by chords indicated above the staff. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score is divided into systems of five lines each. The first system (lines 1-5) contains the first five measures. The second system (lines 6-10) contains the next five measures. The third system (lines 11-15) contains the next five measures. The fourth system (lines 16-17) contains the final two measures, with the second measure having a first and second ending. The bass line is shown in a separate staff at the bottom of the fourth system.

A                    E                    E<sup>7</sup>                    A

Don't know how I got here but here I am. And all that I have is a plan. Ab - surd as it seems and what - e - ver it means, I will stay and do the best that I can. Here I am. Here I

5                    F<sup>#m</sup>                    B<sup>7</sup>                    E                    E<sup>7</sup>                    A

9                    D                    F<sup>#7</sup>                    B                    B<sup>7</sup>                    E                    E<sup>7</sup>                    A                    D

13                    A                    E<sup>7</sup>                    A                    A                    E

Here I am.

17                    A                    D                    A                    E<sup>7</sup>                    1. A                    2. A

am. I will stay and do the best that I can. Here I can.

Here I am.

All works by Secretary Michael have been placed in the Public Domain. They may be freely copied and performed.