

84. Rise and Shine

(From the Solo Edition of the Secular Hymnal - key lowered from G to F)

Words & Chords: Secretary Michael

Tune: "Holy Manna" by William Moore, 1825
(traditional hymn: "Brethren, We Have Met to Worship")

F C F C F

1. Rise and Shine, a new day's dawn - ing, chance to make a bet - ter day.
2. Rise and Shine, the page is turn - ing, turn - ing in - to de - sti - ny.

5 C F C F

Rise and Shine, get up, stop yawn - ing, chance to go a dif - frent way.
Rise and Shine, the book is clos - ing, clos - ing in - to his - to - ry.

9 F C F C

One more chance to join the tus - sle. One more chance be - fore the night.
No more time for nur - sing sor - row. No more time to wish and whine.

13 F C F C F

Chance to lend my mind and mu - scle. Chance to fi - n'ly get things right.
Time is now and not to - mor - row. Time is now to Rise and Shine.

All works by Secretary Michael have been placed in the Public Domain. They may be freely copied and performed.